This passage will show us that ideas that we have, can cut us off from experiencing the power of God in our life and limit our spiritual application. And Jesus takes ideas the people have and confronts them about what they think.

SCRIPTURE READING

Luke 14:1-24 NIV

Jesus at a Pharisee's House

- ¹ One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully watched. ² There in front of him was a man suffering from abnormal swelling of his body. ³ Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in the law, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?" ⁴ But they remained silent. So, taking hold of the man, he healed him and sent him on his way.
- ⁵ Then he asked them, "If one of you has a child or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull it out?" ⁶ And they had nothing to say.
- ⁷ When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table, he told them this parable: ⁸ "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. ⁹ If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, 'Give this person your seat.' Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place. ¹⁰ But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all the other guests. ¹¹ For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."
- ¹² Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. ¹³ But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, ¹⁴ and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Parable of the Great Banquet

- ¹⁵ When one of those at the table with him heard this, he said to Jesus, "Blessed is the one who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God."
- ¹⁶ Jesus replied: "A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests. ¹⁷ At the time of the banquet he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.'

- ¹⁸ “But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, ‘I have just bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please excuse me.’
- ¹⁹ “Another said, ‘I have just bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.’
- ²⁰ “Still another said, ‘I just got married, so I can’t come.’
- ²¹ “The servant came back and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and ordered his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame.’
- ²² “‘Sir,’ the servant said, ‘what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.’
- ²³ “Then the master told his servant, ‘Go out to the roads and country lanes and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full. ²⁴ I tell you, not one of those who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.’”

MAIN IDEA

Jesus Will Lead Us In A Discussion...

A good discussion is an adventure.

Jesus will lead us in discussion that unleashes the power of God.

Jesus will call into question ideas that we have that hold God captive.

That Unleashes The Healing Power Of God...

- ...That Frees Us From Seeking Social Status...

The ideas we have can cut us off from what God wants for us.

God doesn’t need my approval. I don’t need social approval to live my life.

Don’t be controlled by social status. Social status can be bondage.

- ...That Inspires Expressions Of Sincere Giving...

When we give up control, we are free to give.

Do things for those who can’t repay.

- ...And Calls Us To Genuinely Respond To God.

Stop making excuses in responding to what God calls you to do or gives you opportunity to do.

An excuse is the skin of a reason stuffed with a lie.

Lesson takeaway: My small ideas about God can block His power in my life.

CONCLUSION:

Every Sermon Should Have Something To

❖ I Leaned...

My small ideas about God can block His power.

When I stop trying to control God, I am free to give myself to God and people.

That I can be interested in wrong things.

❖ I Believe ...

God leads me in discussion to help me get my beliefs straight.

He helps me when I can't do it.

❖ I Seek To Do ...

Be careful of what excuses we give.

Freely give to God and people.

The benefit of the dinner parties is that it gives us a snapshot in our Lord's life and how practical and down to earth Jesus was.

Our life is not a storage bin, but a dispenser.
